LEX

DUET LEX 2018

It displays a deeper ruby colour with a slight garnet tinge, showing a slight development. Medium intense, slightly restrained on the nose at first. Ripe dark red fruits with clear vanilla are showing first, revealing a complex flavour profile layer by layer in the minutes following. Blackberries, red and black cherries, blackcurrant, black pepper, charred wood, smoke, touch of marmalade, coffee and tobacco are finely wrapped together in a beautiful bouquet. It feels, very youthful, though it is over four years old.

Dry on the palate with medium to full body and moderate acidities which are bringing a good vibrance and lift. Plentiful of ripe tannins are forming a firm grip. Excellently framed. Flavour character on the palate is luscious as well, featuring dark red fruits, coffee, and smoke. Finish is very long. A top quality, one of the best, if not the best Duet Lex to date.

Best from: 2024–2035.
